CAPE TOWN

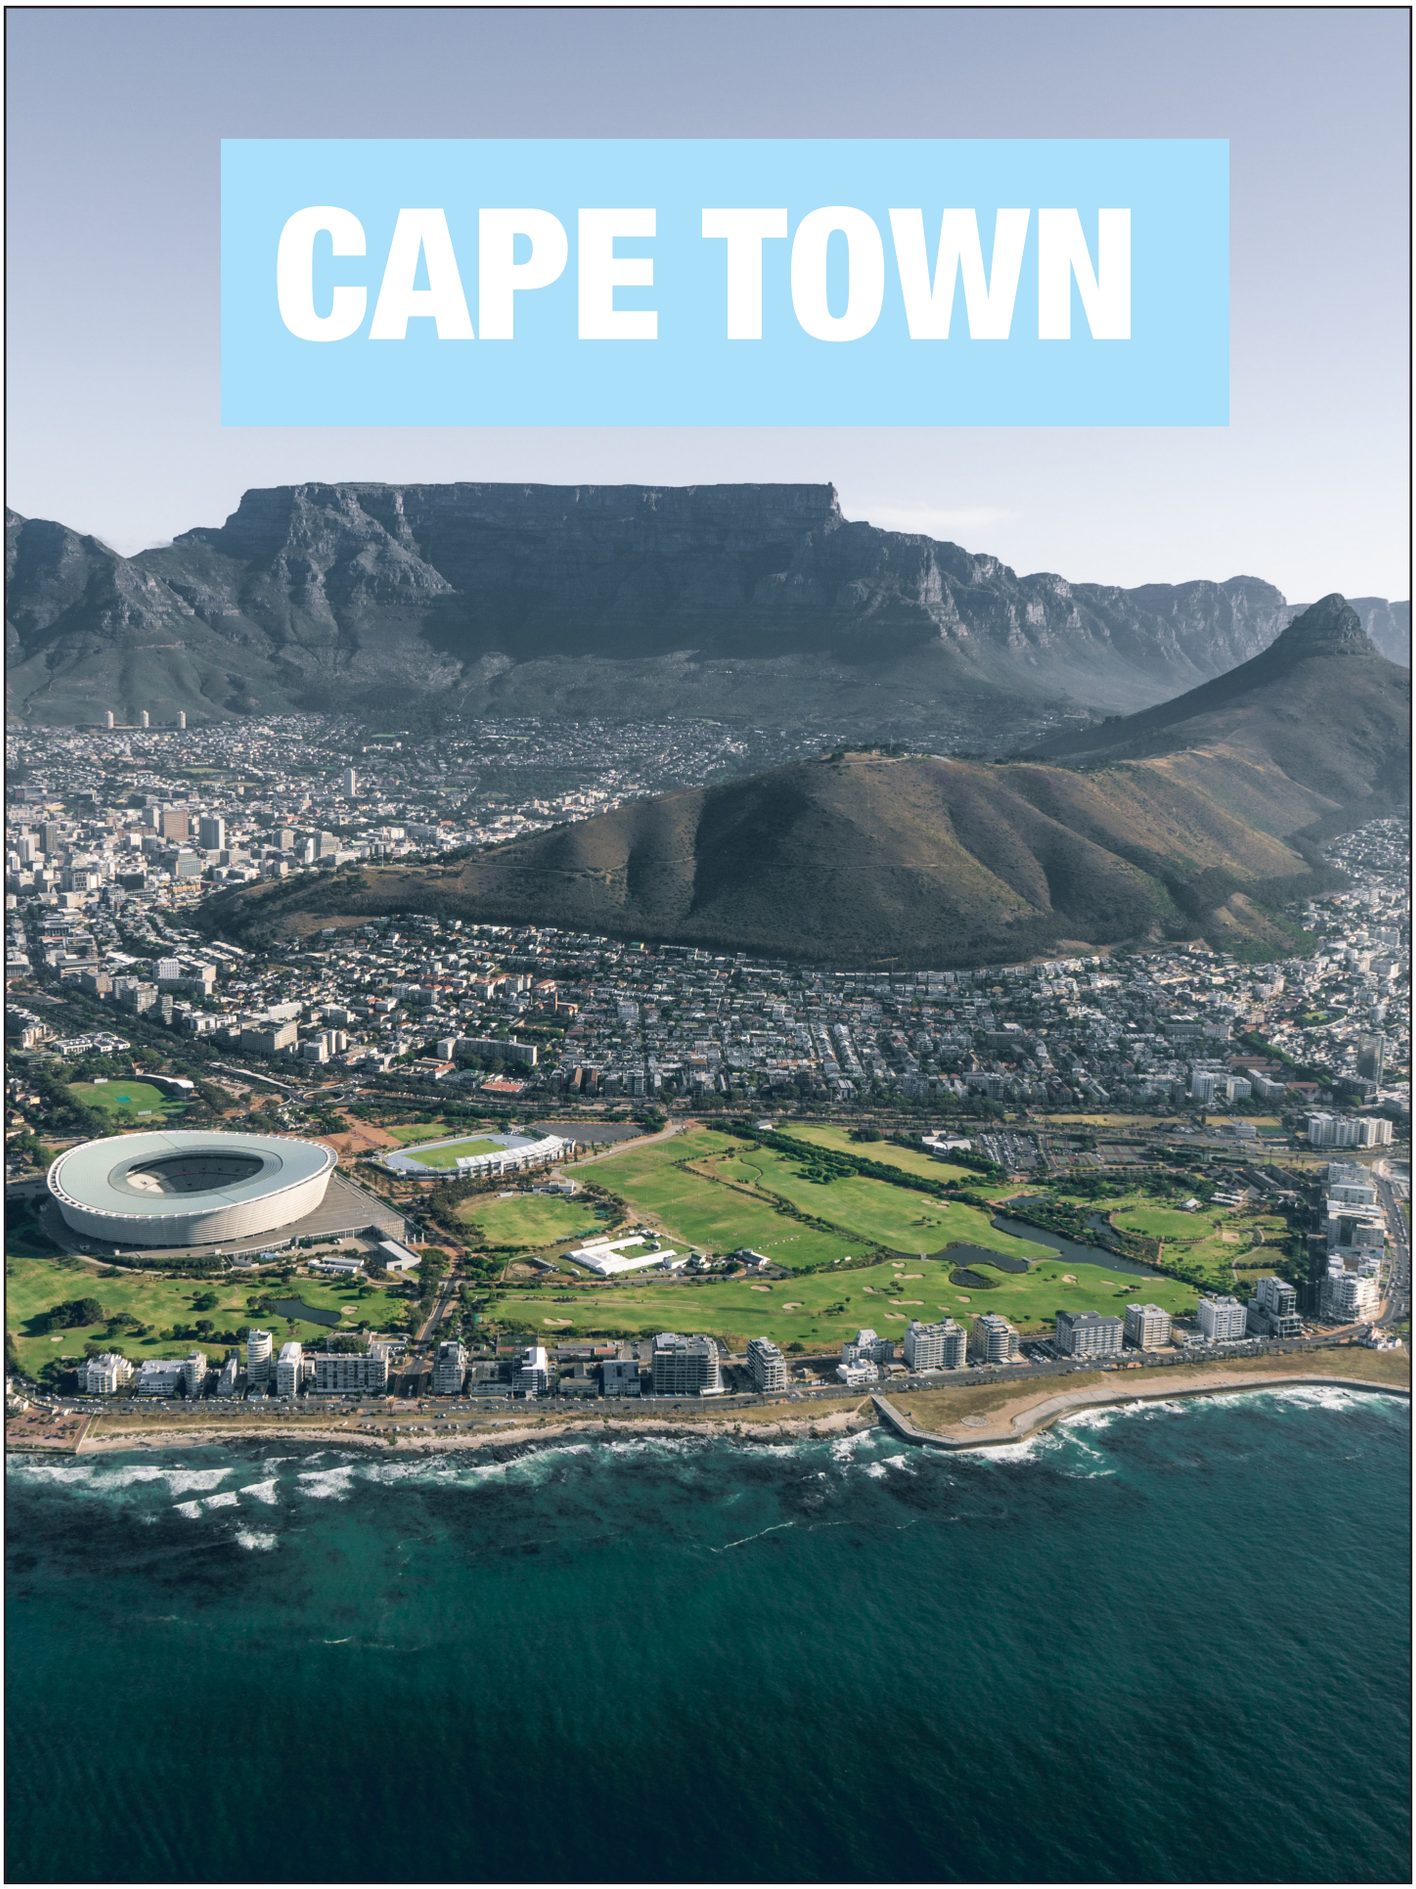

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Cape Winelands 3

Wilderness of the Kruger 4

Bo-Kaap 5

Harmanus 6

Cape Winelands

A journey through the Western Cape would be incomplete without a visit to the Cape Winelands. The challenge lies in selecting from the numerous splendid options. If you're near Cape Town, explore the Constantia Wine Route with its nine charming farms. Stellenbosch offers historic Cape Dutch farms and active vineyards, while the French-inspired town of Franschhoek boasts glamorous vineyards and delectable cuisine. For breathtaking views, head to the Hemel en Aarde Valley near Hermanus, where you might even catch a glimpse of a whale while savoring a glass of wine – or maybe it's just the wine talking!

SABI SABI
Wilderness of the Kruger

Bo-Kaap

Bo-Kaap is a historic and colorful neighborhood in Cape Town, South Africa. Known for its brightly painted houses, it has a rich cultural heritage as the home of Cape Malay people. Tourists are drawn to its vibrant streets, unique cuisine, and cultural events, including the Cape Town Minstrel Carnival. The neighborhood offers scenic views from the slopes of Signal Hill and is a popular destination for visitors looking to explore Cape Town's cultural diversity.

Hermanus

Hermanus, located on South Africa's southern coast, South renowned for its world-class whale watching between June and December. The town features stunning coastal landscapes, an annual Whale Festival, and a range of outdoor activities like hiking and shark cage diving. It's also known for its vibrant culinary scene, art and culture, and the warm hospitality of its community, making it a popular destination for nature lovers and tourists.